The East, West, Hames Best Menu, August 2018

East, West, Hames Best

The exotic always seems to be more intriguing, more sophisticated. Even the way some food dishes sound in a foreign language echo the taste of romanticism.

We tend to look abroad for gastronomic satisfaction, often ignoring the quality we have here at home. Our larder contains world class products lovingly developed by world class producers.

From the Outer Hebrides, to the Borders, our wee country exports over £1.5 billion in international food exports. Lets keep some at home.

For the month of August our six course, weekend tasting menu will be of an “ east, west, hames best “ flavour, featuring some of the best Scotland has to offer.
